Founded in 1976 in Santa Ana, Casa Teresa was envisioned as a home for pregnant women, over the age of 18, who were alone and had no support. At the time, there were very few resources or shelters specifically for single, pregnant women, and founders Neill and Sally Sullivan launched Casa Teresa as a four-unit building and cottage to meet the need. After nearly a decade in Santa Ana, Casa Teresa moved to its current site in Orange in 1985, where its Old Towne location ensured access to nearby stores, public transportation, and healthcare for residents.

Homeless Intervention Services of Orange County (HIS-OC) currently runs four programs that assist people who are homeless or at risk of being homeless. Our shelters and supportive service programs provide assistance to our community's most vulnerable population. We are different from an emergency shelter or single program shelter because we provide a longer-term guided process to achieve self-sufficiency. Our programs require a commitment on the part of our clients and provide tools so that a return to homelessness is prevented. Homeless Intervention Services of Orange County integrates job training, therapy, case management, and education into a continuum of care that addresses each client's specific needs.

Jocelyn Gracia Saldivar

September 10, 2010 - November 10, 2021

JocelynG Wings4Hope

Jocelyn G. Saldivar radiated a vibrant spirit that touched everyone she encountered. At the age of 10, she faced an aggressive form of brain cancer (Glioblastoma) with unparalleled strength, inspiring all who witnessed her courage. Tragically, after a 13-month battle, she gained her wings, leaving behind a legacy of unwavering bravery.

In memory of Jocelyn, we her parents, Robert and Lilly, alongside her siblings, Robert and Julissa, created "JocelynG Wings4Hope," a nonprofit committed to advancing cancer research and offering vital support and financial aid to families facing a similar challenging path.

Your generous donations will enable us to bring smiles to the faces of children and families at CHOC, while also supporting local agencies that tirelessly work with oncology families. We thank you in advance for helping us make a meaningful impact in the fight against childhood cancer.
